My dear Miss Gilpin:

I am sorry not to have written you sooner with news of your photographs which we have in the Gallery. So far none of them has been sold....due, I should say, to the general business inertia and to the fact that a public still needs to be developed more fully in the buying of photographs. However, I am glad to say that in general the Gallery has been fairly successful, considering the times, the publicity has been favorable and sales have been as satisfactory as possible for a beginning. Your photographs have elicited a good deal of attention and excellent comment.

We appreciate so much having your pictures and hope that you will allow us to keep them again this season in the hope that we may be able to dispose of them.

Sincerely

Julien Levy
