Dear Miss Gilpin:-

I thank you for your kind letter of May 4th and am glad to know that you are pleased with our catalogue and have become a missionary for the Russell-Built museum case cause. It is very unfortunate that so many of the museums are now short of funds.

I have just received photographs of the cases in the Folger Shakespeare Library and they are beautiful. I hope you will have an opportunity to see them.

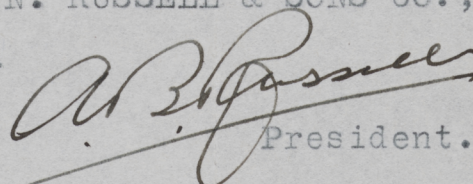

Unfortunately I do not now think of any installations which we could ask you to photograph although we are hoping to furnish the cases for the Denver Art Museum and also some for Colorado Springs before long.

With appreciation of your interest,
we are

Very truly yours,
