Dear Miss Gilpin:

The photographs of the J. A. Chapman house have just arrived but unfortunately too late for the exhibition.

Several of the ones of the living room are very nice for general purposes. The bookroom is very well taken, particularly the texture of the rug but the table is too prominent and the reading lamp unfortunate. Of course these things are something only a decorator can re-arrange at the time.

Mrs. Chapman's room I am disappointed in on account of the blank wallspace. I think it would have been better to have taken the photograph of the bed from the entrance which would have given the more pleasing dresser base and mirror in connection with it.

We have marked them on the back and are ordering six as listed below; gloss finish.

- #1 Living room
- #2 living room
- #3 morning room
- #4 Guest room
- #5 Owners room
- #6 Owners room

for reproduction

No doubt Mrs. Chapman will be interested in ordering some of these also.

Yours sincerely,

A P Tainter
