Dear Madam:

I have a photograph made by you of an Indian girl, taken in San Ildefonso Indian Village, which I prize very highly - and am very anxious to know if you have or could furnish more of these photographs.

The child's mother is a member of the famous black pottery from that locality, to sold this photograph to my brother, who is of the impression the mother is Juinita Montoya.

If you remember this photo - kindly advise me what apints would cost.

Yours very truly
Esther Wright
