

315 East 55th St.

New York. Sept. 17.
1933

Dear Louisa —

Theatre Arts will publish the sets of the Merry Widow. Will you send me some glossy prints?
I have plunged into a terrible sea of work and am beginning to feel homesick for Central already!
And full of plans for next year.
I do hope there will be more money in the organization next time so you won't be so cramped.

Don't forget the little white house across the bridge in Blackbank with the trimming of poinsettias and grape-tendrils.

Best wishes

In haste

Robert Edmund Jones

Maynard sends greeting.