

December 4th, 1935.

Mr. Julien Levy,
Julien Levy Gallery,
602 Madison Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Levy:

It is many months since our last correspondence, and I am sure that you would like to return or change the set of photographs of mine that you have on hand. I have been hoping for some time to be ready for a New York exhibition and I may possibly attain that end sometime during the winter, but in the meantime would be grateful if you would return to me the prints that you have on hand at this time.

Very truly yours,

LG/H