My dear Miss Gilpin:

I am wondering if you will be able to make a trip to N.Y.C. this winter. I do hope so.

Our Hundred Print Travel Salon is back home after many travels and will be returned next month. In the meantime we are putting on a print auction and would like to put one of your prints up with others to help raise funds for our treasury as well as to get our members started in collecting good photographic prints. If we can I will appreciate it a lot. As usual I have left these letters to the last moment so please fill out the card and start it back as soon as you can.

Things are going on as usual around here. There is a pick-up in business and we are all holding our breath for fear it won't last. It looks good so far though.

Very cordially yours,

Ira W. Martin
