My Dear Miss Gilpin :-

Mr. Frank Gates has asked me to help with the detail work of getting the pictures ordered that they have picked out and to circulate the proofs among the chorus people to see if there are any who wish copies of same which is indeed quite a job. I have not been able, as yet, to get a final decision from some of them but am certain that I can take quite an order for you which will give you a very nice order with absolute security if you are willing for me to handle it for you. Personally I know that you could have sold many more prints at straight $1 a print but not knowing wheather I could get a combined order of 12 from each negative I had to ask them $1.50 a print and most of them got cold feet.

It will be necessary for me to keep the negatives it order for me to keep my records straight, but I see that you have numbered all of the prints so will order the ones selected by the association first.
Print the following:-

- #1 Entrance of Kane and Middleton with chorus.
- #2 The Bride and Groom Ensemble with the garlands.
- #3 The Entrance of the Duke, Duchess, Panvine and Hill in the Gongola
- #4 The Finale of the 1st. act with the boat with the big sail
- #5 The opening of second act with Kane and Middleton on the throne with the boys playing games.
- #7 Middleton with the secpter over his shoulder and the boys in two diagonal lines across the stage
- #9 The Entrance of the Duke, Duchess and Casilda with the two trumpeters, two spear carriers and the boys of the chorus.
- #10 The Gavotte with the two couples in a circle and Porter to the left.
- #11 The Gavotte, with Porter in the Center and the two couple at R & L Stage
- #12 The Finale of the show with every one on the stage, King and Queen on the Throne
- #19 Daniels in the door way, Kane and Whitney left, Middleton and Bernahrdrdt to the R of picture.
- #20 Mark Daniels in the Door way alone.

As I understand it, this is the complete list for the association. Trusting that I have handled it properly for you. The other list is inclosed.

Sincerely yours,

Shurman E. Sundus Stage Manager.
