Dear Sirs:-

I am just publishing a series of postcards which I wish to copyright. I enclose two samples with which are form J1 blanks. I am not sure if this is the proper blank and I do not know what the fee is for postcards so I will hold the balance of the set until I hear from you.

In this set are six photographs which are already copyrighted by myself and I presume that it is not necessary to register them again, as they are registered both under Photographs and Photographs Reproduced, as they were used in a special booklet.

There are forty cards in the set, six of which are copyrighted. I will need about 12 more J1 blanks if these are the correct ones, or 36 if this is not the right form.

Very truly yours,
