

April 26, 1937.

Mr. A. M. Sukennikoff,
229 West 42nd St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Sukennikoff:-

Thank you for your letter regarding Miss Forster's manuscript "Happy Hogans". I will see her to-morrow and pass it on to her.

Miss Forster has already written one successful additional letter and has at least two more outlined. With her present work she will have little time for the next six weeks but I assure you that I will keep prodding until it is accomplished. I should think that it would make an attractive book for Christmas sale and am wondering about what time would be the dead line for such publications.

We will of-course be glad to return the manuscript to you when it is ready, also a carbon copy and the additional photographs.

Thanking you for your interest, I am

Very sincerely yours,