

HOTEL MCALPIN
NEW YORK

9th Decy 37

Dear Miss Gilpin

I have posted back to you today Willa Catha's book which you kindly lent me.
It is a fine book but not a great book like the more famous one is.

I arrived back safely after a rather monotonous journey yesterday morning. Last evening I visited Mrs Clarence white and today in W. H.

Jackson both of whom spoke of you. I am busy paying final calls and getting a few more records of New York before I leave.

The weather is still fine and sunny but cold.

With kindest regards

Yours sincerely

J. Dudley Johnston
