Santa Fe, New Mexico.

My dear Aileen:

The twelve photographs for the New Mexico State Guide were shipped to you on June 29th and I trust they reached you in sufficient time. As these are copy-righted photographs, I hereby grant to you the right to use these photographs in this publication. The best of luck to you! And I hope the book will be a grand success.

I presume that Deric is with you now and I know how happy you must be. Please give him my warmest regards.

I hope to be down again before too long.

Sincerely yours,
