

BUILT OWNED AND OCCUPIED
BY THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW.

ESTABLISHED MAY 15TH 1883

THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW

DAILY, SUNDAY,

Spokane, Wash.

June 21, 1940

Miss Laura Gilpin

317 Cheyenne Road

Colorado Springs, Colorado

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Before I left Colorado Springs, I found I needed copies of certain things in Mrs. Stewart's album, as follows:

1. Life of John Cowles, taken from the lines on the monument she erected, I think.
2. Genealogies of the Cowles and Hutchinson families, in brief.
(This, of course, would include the usual information about the individuals -- when and where born, date of death, date of marriage, to whom married, etc.)
3. Sample of lines under some one picture, in the type proposed to be used -- showing the style.

Copies of the life of John Cowles and the condensed genealogies would be helpful, as would the sample of the proposed type in that it would indicate the amount of space to be occupied by matter prepared for lines under the pictures.

Also, I think you were going to send to me a sample of the loose leaf and perhaps a sample of the binding -- this last is not pressing, however.

Miss Laura Gilpin

- 2 -

June 21, 1940

If you have not received the picture of Alfred Cowles 3rd, would you mind dropping him a line, in Chicago, 332 South LaSalle Street, reminding him that he told me he would send it on to you in Colorado Springs?

I hope you have entirely recovered your strength.

Sincerely yours,

W. H. Cowles.

WHC:G