My dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your order of August 8th, however, I do not believe it would be practical to start the covers until I have at least one complete copy of the books on hand.

I am enclosing a sketch for a box that I believe would be the most suitable for the purpose. Also a sketch of a slipcase with the front end open. The price of the slipcase, covered in cloth, would be in quantities of one $5.50; in quantities of 12, $4.00 each.

The box would also be covered in cloth. I shall submit two prices on the box, one for the box that is covered all in one piece of cloth (which makes a much neater-looking box), the other where more than one piece of cloth is used for the covering:

For 1 Box, holding 2 vols. covered in 1 piece	9.00
" 1 " " " " " " in several pieces	8.00
For 12 Boxes, covered in 1 piece	7.00
" 12" " " " " several pieces	5.50

Thanking you again for this order, and awaiting your reply, I am

Very truly yours,

Jean Eschmann
