My dear Miss Gilpin:

The pages for the twelve copies of Volume One for Mr. Cowles' Albums arrived in good condition. I looked over this material and all is in order. Allow me to congratulate you on your very fine work.

This being a very busy time of the year for me, I cannot at this writing give you a definite date for delivery. I shall do my very best to get the seven volumes to you before Christmas, and when I am a little further along with your work I will drop you a line stating when shipment will be made.

Your presumption as to why the boxes made of one piece of cloth are more expensive than those made of several pieces is quite correct; it is more difficult and takes more time working with one large piece of cloth than with several smaller pieces.

I am sending along several samples of cloth each marked with a number according to choice; number 1 being my first choice, and so on. Please return to me the sample Mr. Cowles decides upon with your order.

Sincerely yours,

Jean Eschmann
