

April 8, 1940.

Mr. George A. Nelson,
The Stevens-Nelson Paper Co.,
109 East 31st St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Nelson:-

The fifty sheets of paper have arrived by express. The final decisions are made for these books and the requirements will be an additional 150 sheets to the ream I ordered last week. Will you add this to the order I sent you and ship it by freight. I will have another check for you very shortly. In the event that further additions should be made to these books, I presume that I will be able to get an additional quantity of this same Rives White Heavy within the next few months.

I notice the name of Warwick C. Miller on your letter head. I am wondering if he comes from Sandy Spring, Maryland. If so he must be a cousin of mine as my great Uncle was Warwick Miller.

Thanking you for your careful attention to my order, I am

Very truly yours,