Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thank you for your letter of April 8th. As we interpret your letter you now want a total of 650 sheets of Rives, fifty of which have been sent, leaving a balance of 600 sheets, which are going forward today, and we are including in the shipment the balance of your order; that is, the Roma Cover and Charing. We hope all this is received in good condition in time for your requirements.

I showed your letter to Warwick C. Miller, who advises me that the name "Warwick" is a family name, but that he has no relationship to anyone in Maryland. This is an unusual name, and a strange coincidence.

Appreciating your valued orders, and assuring you of our co-operation, we remain

Very truly yours,
