Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have your letter of September 9th, concerning the Family Album of Mrs. Stewart.

I have been calling on some people that do hand lettering but no one wanted to handle your coats of arms. Finally I called up Mr. Egge, at the Cleveland School of Art, a member of the Faculty, teaching hand lettering and illuminating. He said that they had several capable students able to do that kind of work on paper or vellum. The Cleveland School of Art has a good reputation, and if you are interested, send the information, photos etc., to me to get a quotation.

I am enclosing some samples of blue leather. The French Levant and Oasis Morocco are imported and very hard to find on the market. I have enough of the French Levant on hand for one book, the Oasis for about four books. The Domestic Morocco can be obtained without any difficulty.

For the Albums, I am quoting the following prices:

6 Vols. bound in Domestic Morocco, gold tooled, panel on front cover with title, silk lined inside
per Vol. $26.00

1 Vol. same binding as original Volumes
French Levant	$60.00
Oasis Morocco	$55.00

3 Boxes covered in blue cloth same type as for Mr. Cowles per box $8.00

Hoping that this will meet your approval, I am

Sincerely yours,

Jean Eschmann
