Dear Miss Gilpin:

Many thanks for returning the signed contracts with your letter of May 15. A duly executed contract is enclosed herewith.

At the earliest possible moment, I shall let you have the information concerning the inclusion of the Spanish American Village series.

In reference to using the prints which are included in the book for the purposes you describe, we do not have any objection to having these reproduced provided that:

1. A limited amount is used.
2. A credit line to the effect that these photographs are from the STORY OF THE PUEBLOS by Laura Gilpin to be published by Hastings House in November.

Incidentally, I am sure that you know that you are, of course, entitled to the usual fees from the magazines on these pictures reproduced with our permission.

I shall get in touch with you as soon as I have anything definite to report concerning the manufacture of the book. Your pictures of Chichen Itza have been received, but I have unfortunately not been able to take a peek at them.

Cordially yours,

HASTINGS HOUSE
