Dear Miss Gilpin:

We have finally carefully gone over the Pueblo Book and feel that perhaps it might be more consistent to eliminate the Spanish section, although some of the pictures seem to blend in so well that we are at a loss to clearly determine which marks the new section. I presume that you refer to pages 66 to 72, inclusive.

We can, therefore, include the material for Acoma, which, incidentally, is swell.

You mentioned that you wanted to send us the text for this, and I assume that you will mention the new signatures. As soon as we receive this text and your instructions, we can go full speed ahead.

It is going to be a swell book.

Cordially yours,
