

February 10, 1941.

Mr. Jean Eschmann,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Eschmann:-

I am presuming that all the material for the Cowles books reached you safely though I have never hear of its arrival. I am also sure that just as soon as I mail this enquiry I shall recieve a letter from you in the next mail which always seems to be the case.

I trust that everything is coming along satisfactorily and that the books will be coming back soon.

Very truly yours,