Dear Miss Fish:-

I have just had an airmail letter from Mr. Walter Loban of Evanston, Ill. requesting me to send you immediately a print of Chichen Itza, Yucatan. Mr. Loban failed to give me any idea of what this is to illustrate or which ruin he wished, and as there are some 60 subjects in my Yucatan series, I was somewhat at a loss to know which to select.

I am sending you "The Temple of three Lintels", Chichen Itza, as a guess. It is one of the best of the series and is pure Mayan whereas some of the later ruins are not. This is a copyrighted picture and permission is hereby granted for reproduction in Mr. Loban's book.

Should I not have selected the proper subject, kindly let me know air mail and I will substitute what ever is needed. I have written this to Mr. Loban.

Very truly yours,
