

OCT. 23, 1941.

Mr. Willard D. Morgan,
37 West 47th St.,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Morgan:-

Under separate cover I am mailing you 9 Kodachromes of a variety of subjects. These have been mounted for projection as you will see and one or two which would otherwise have been made uprights were planned for this purpose. I take it for granted that eventually these will be returned if you should decide to use any of them. I will send you a group of prints in the next day or two, I find that I do have prints on hand of a few things I should like to submit to you.

Are you having an article at any time in the COMPLETE PHOTOGRAPHER on business and prices etc. etc. etc.? I ask this question as this is a subject upon which I need a complete education for I am the world's worst at selling my own stuff. Incidentally is the Free-Lance Photographer's Guild a good outfit? I have recently had a speculative assignment from them and have just sent it in. It is imperative for me to increase my earning capacity as I have some heavy responsibilities at home and the home market is pretty feeble.

I see that Mrs. Morgan's book of Martha Graham is just out. I hope to see it soon, but so far no local store has a copy. I know it will be excellent and full of interest.

My kind regards to Mrs. Morgan,

Cordially
