Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have just discovered that through some failure on my part, I gave you the impression that I wanted your picture "The Water Hole at Acoma", when I really wanted your picture labelled "Chichen Itza, Yucatan". Our book is so near publication that I should appreciate your earliest cooperation in assisting me to get a glossy print of "Chichen Itza, Yucatan" to Miss Eleanor Fish, Harcourt, Brace and Company, Publishers, 383 Madison Avenue, New York City, N. Y. Could you send her a glossy print direct?

I assume that the fee of $5.00 which you mentioned for the Acoma picture holds for Chichen Itza also. I am sending a copy of this letter to Miss Fish, and she will arrange to pay you from the publisher's office. If "Laura Gilpin" is not the credit line you wish, will you let Miss Fish know the exact wording you prefer?

Very truly yours,

Walter Loban

P.S. I am returning your glossy print of Acoma.
