

245 BARRINGTON STREET
ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

Monday, Sept. 22.

Dear Laura -

Dicky (my sister Edith) asked me to forward this to you. I don't know Malibu James, but she apparently does - He is working on a James genealogy, apparently, and needs some more data - apparently hopes to get there in a hurry, as Dicky asked me to send our boys' data back immediately -

I thought maybe you would like to take a whack at this tatype - if you have time - anyhow, I hope maybe Louise Dad will know who the other two are - Father and mother were not married, as I remember the story, but alas, I'll probably never know.

We are just home from a nice summer at the lake, and are settled down for the winter - Got Bob off to school tonight, and all the things I belong to - many too many, are missing frequently. The war news makes me ill. Not discouraged, but just so sick - Much love to you both. Don't worry with the vintage. I thought I'd like to order a couple of prints for Christmas presents, if they show up well - possibly mildred.
