

Miss Gilpin, Happened to come across this one for your collection in the Silver City Enterprise. Files of 50 years ago should yield others. I'll send any I come across. Don't bother to acknowledge them.

C S M

SILVER CITY ENTERPRISE

From the Files

OF THE

Silver City Enterprise

Half Century
Friday, April 22, 1892

Surveyor Giles and party have returned to Topeka, having completed the preliminary survey of the proposed change of the main line to touch Hudson's Hot Springs.

* * * * *

The democratic convention meets in this city this afternoon and some lively times are expected. The two factions of the party have their war paint on, and the braves are preparing for slaughter. There's blood on the moon.

* * * * *

~~XX~~ Captain Rowdy, the Yuma Apache scout, passed through town Monday, en route for San Carlos. Rowdy is one of the good Indians, and did good service for the government in the Geronimo campaign, for which he was awarded a congressional medal.

* * * * *