Dear Laura:

This is a very belated but nevertheless highly appreciative note of thanks for your grand little book. I have read it with the greatest possible pleasure and can find nothing but praise for its makeup and contents. Although you are famed for your superb photographs, it would seem to me that you have an equal claim as an author. The text is just right, simple and clear yet conveying the color of the land and people. I do hope that you have good success with the book.

Best regards,

Eric
