Dear Miss Gilpin.

I have been meaning to write for the last two days, as I have a package for you, which was sent from A. A. Fisher, of 827 Denver St. National Bldg. Denver, Colo. The Railway Express Agency would not forward it to you, but said if I did not accept it for you, they would have to send it back to the sender. They also said I'd have to have your permission to send it to you. Should you please write instructions as to what you would like me to do? The package has been marked Fragile, and is insured for $50.00.

Frankly I couldn't see why they couldn't have forwarded it to you, but I guess it must be one of the rules of the company.

Wishing you the best for the New Year, I remain.

Sincerely
Law Winston
