Dear Laura Kilgus

Buying some of your postal pictures today stalked to the man who knew you said you often came here. How quick I had found you here.

I am a widow now and trying to pull myself together and find something in life to piece together.
Wish I could go on a photographic trip into you sometime and get into in making myself. You have been so wonderful in your work. I am always thrilled when I open a magazine see a picture of you.
On my way home, give a visit to my niece in Hawaii and driving home.
When you are east will you stop to see me. An All Year Round Resort Hotel

One to you. Mary Boyd Wood
