Dear Miss Gilpin:

With the approach of the end of the year 1942, we are making an effort to close as many accounts on the books of the old firm as possible. In that connection we are taking the liberty of enclosing to you a small item of cash disbursement which stands on the books against your brother. We do not know where to reach him, and believe that you will remember about the incident.

I trust you like your work and Wichita. As for me, I am always glad for an opportunity to get back to Colorado Springs occasionally for a weekend.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

HANEY & JACKSON
