

of director of engineering, Chief Engineer, relations officer of the AAF, Washington; Lieut. Col. C. A. Peterson, aide to General Arnold; Lieut. Col. R. G. Vaughan, AAF resident representative at Boeing; Maj. Emmett McCabe, General Arnold's aide; Cliff Barron, Boeing assistant secretary-treasurer; H. F. Brown, Boeing works manager; L. M. Divinia, executive assistant to Mr. Schaefer and Harold Zipp, Boeing chief engineer.

WELLWOOD BEALL

exactly what Boeing is doing and one of the most important jobs being accomplished right here in Wichita."

FORM A-46 R2

BOEING AIRPLANE COMPANY
WICHITA DIVISION

INTER OFFICE MEMORANDUM

FROM L. M. Divinia December 22, 19 43

TO Laura Gilpin - 76 - II

SUBJECT:

Will you please prepare a 16 x 20 enlargement of the photograph referred to in the attached photostatic copy of General Arnold's letter of December 18. I think this should be a dull finish photograph which we will have properly mounted before sending to the General. You may retain the attached photostatic copy of the General's letter.

