Dear Miss Gilpin:

Thanks very much for your check which was received this morning.

In regard to the rent matter of your studio, we are going to have Mr. Cool check into this and write you about it. He is better equipped to handle this than either my father or myself, due to the fact that he has already had a considerable amount of experience with such problems in connection with men in the army.

As you know, Mr. Cool has been associated with us in the office for the past several months. He will write you as soon as anything has developed.

With best regards,

Yours very truly,

HANEY & HANEY

P.S. Since writing the above your letter arrived saying you were giving Winston more time. We will do nothing about it until we hear from you. J.D.H.

Please make new proofs of the wedding pictures if the old ones are lost.
