Dear Miss Gilpin:

The Museum would like to purchase for reproducing in a forthcoming book on North American archaeology by Dr. Martin and two of his colleagues an 8x10 glossy print of Cliff Palace.

Dr. Martin would like to use this as a vertical frontispiece in the book, the size of which will be 6x9 inches. He would like to have any photograph that you think would be dramatic and usable in such a book.

He would like also to purchase an 8x10 glossy print of White House in Canyon de Chelly, but he fears that the exhibition print which you mentioned in your letter would not be suitable for reproduction. Furthermore, he would not like to have to return that print to you.

I understand that you charge $5.00 per print. Will you please bill the Museum when you fill this order?

Very truly yours,

Clifford C. Gregg
Director
