Dear Miss Gilpin:

I was delighted to receive your letter of May 4 and to know that you are once again looking for free lance work. I have nothing at the moment, but, as you know, I have admired your work for many years.

It occurs to me that as long as you are looking around, you might be interested in talking to Mr. Brackman of Free Lance Photographers' Guild, 219 East 44th Street, New York City. You might also be interested in talking to Mr. Edward Scherck of Underwood & Underwood, 321 East 44th Street, New York City, who seemed to be interested in having correspond photographers at various odd places. I can recommend Underwood highly. ~~I would~~

I would very much like to see your work done for Boeing and any other material which you may have with you. It would be nice to show it to several people if you can get to Philadelphia, but if not, please call our New York office and leave your New York telephone number for me.

Cordially yours,

Gordon M. Wilbur
