My dear Miss Gilpin,

I should like permission to use your picture of the mission at Rancho de Taos in my thesis.
In as much as it is the best shot I have seen and fits beautifully with my description, or vice versa, your permission to use it will be greatly appreciated.

The thesis will never be published, I assure you, so that any complications with copyright restrictions may be dismissed.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience, I am,

Sincerely yours,
Geraldine Farrestal
