Dear Miss Gilpin:

We have been working so hard on the book that I've had no time to write you. I sent your bill to our Auditor and I hope that it has been paid by now.

The Press decided that the prints you sent us were not sharp enough for good reproduction. If you wish these prints returned to you, I shall be glad to send them back to you.

I appreciate very much your quick response to our request and your friendly effort to help us. It was not your fault that you ~~did~~ not have with you your own fine negatives.

Sincerely yours,

Paul S. Martin
