My dear Miss Gilpin:

It is a great pleasure to invite you to serve as a member of the Jury for the Seventh St. Louis International Salon of Photography. The judging dates will be Saturday and Sunday, March 15 and 16. We will, of course, pay all expenses by any means of transportation you prefer, as well as hotel and other expenses while in St. Louis.

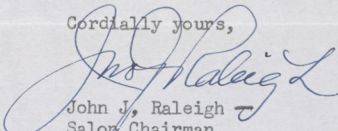

You probably know what we have been trying to accomplish with our Salon. We have been very successful in getting a turn-out of prints, and see no reason why there should not be a fine lot submitted for the 1947 Salon.

The City Art Museum, who are interested in our efforts, have worked closely with us, even to the extent of helping in financing our expenses. We should like to repay their confidence by attracting the very best prints, and by having them judged by the very finest jury.

We hope that this will not interfere too much with the work on your new book that we are hearing about from George Greene. From what I've heard about you from other sources and from what he tells me, I want to say again that I hope you will be able to be with us.

We are asking that no member of the Jury reveal his identity until the entry blanks have been placed in the hands of the exhibitors, approximately November 20.

Cordially yours,

John J. Raleigh
