Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have been looking for an announcement of the publication of the book for which you took the pictures in Mexico last spring, because I wanted to purchase a copy for Mrs. Williamson. I have not been able to find out if the book has been published or not, but if it has, I would appreciate it if you would let me know the title of it and where it can be purchased.

Incidentally, I am going through Colorado Springs next Wednesday afternoon on the Texas Zephyr which, however, only stops at Colorado Springs a minute or two at about 2:40 in the afternoon.

I hope that you and Miss Robey are both well, that you have enjoyed your summer and fall and that everything goes well with both of you.

I will appreciate hearing from you about the book as early as convenient because if I have to send to New York for it, there is not too much time left to get it before Christmas. Mrs. Williamson has been very well since her return from Mexico except for an accident with her car last September which might have been much more serious. She had to leave the road to avoid hitting a little boy and turned over two or three times. She wrecked the car and got a lot of bruises and bumps, but no broken bones.

She is leaving the middle of this week for a trip to the east coast and when I return from my western trip on which I am leaving tonight, I will meet her in Ohio at her mother's for Christmas.

Yours truly,

Miss Laura Gilpin
