Miss Laura Gilpin,
P.O. Box 1173,
Santa Fe,
New Mexico.

Dear Miss Gilpin:

Due to some confusion in our mail room the enclosed photographs and your book "The Pueblos" were sent to our Food Editor, and by this time I'm afraid you will have received the package intended for her. I've discovered, however, that the contents of the package you received in error were of no consequence, and it will be perfectly all right for you to dispose of them. I'm so sorry about this.

Your Kodachromes were returned to you by registered mail on March 10, together with a letter telling you we are using your picture of Mesa Verde. I hope you received them safely. I shall be glad to have your bill.

Sincerely yours,

John Morris.
Associate Editor.
