Dear Miss Gilpin;

Last year The Camera Club inaugurated the Women's Invitation Exhibition in order to bring together the best work of the outstanding women photographers in the country in the various fields in which they are making their important contributions. It will be held again in November 1948 and it is our desire to make it an even better show this year, in interest of subject matter and photographic technique.

The merit of your work has come to our attention and we feel that without doubt you should be represented in the Exhibition next November. I have seen the pictures which you have with Nancy Newhall and at her suggestion have selected four of your Follow the Rio Grande series. Rio Grande before the storm, Woodcarver of Cordova, Accent to Indian Life, Christian and Indian rites in Pueblo ceremonials. She still has the pictures of course awaiting your acceptance to exhibit, and would let me have them in the fall.

To present with the pictures at the exhibition I would like to have a short statement from you regarding them, but you will hear from me about that in the fall.

The invitation list will be limited to approximately thirty exhibitors selected from outstanding photographers throughout the country. I shall look forward to receiving your acceptance on the enclosed card.

Sincerely,

Alouise Boker

Alouise Boker
Exhibition Chairman.

P.S. Perhaps by fall you might have some other pictures you would prefer exhibiting - let me know -
