Dear Miss Gilpin;

I have just to-day talked to Mrs. Newhall, who is in New York for only a few days from Rochester. She tells me that she has returned all of your prints to you. I just wanted you to know that I knew this and will now be looking for your prints coming direct from you; by October 4th. but no later than October 8th.

From those prints which you had with Mrs. Newhall we selected;

1. Rio Grande before the Storm
- 2 Woodcarver of Cordova
- 3 Accent to Indian Life
- 4 Christian and Indian rites in Puebla Ceremonies

Perhaps you would prefer to make your own selection from your collection, which I want you to feel free to do. We made that selection because it was a group from your book but perhaps you have others now which you would rather send. Please don't forget to make your No. 1. choice.

Sincerely,

Alouise Boker
