Dear Miss Gilpin:

I have been instructed to invite you to serve as a member of the jury which will meet on the afternoon of September 25, 1948, to select the prints for this years Annual Exhibit. In an attempt to improve the quality of the Salon, the prints will be selected from entries especially submitted for that purpose, rather than from the accumulated popular vote winners, as has been the custom in the past. We would like to assure the members of mature judgement of their work, and to this end are particularly anxious to have you serve as one of the judges. Serving with you on the jury would be Jean Charlot and a professional photographer of this region.

We do realize that your acceptance will cause some inconvenience and expense to you. But if the opportunity to visit with old friends will sort of balance the inconvenience, the club will be glad to defray your expenses.

If you are able to accept, we would also like you to be our guest at the Club Banquet which will be held at the Swiss Chalet, the evening of the judging.

The Club and I anxiously await your reply.

Sincerely yours,
Lorraine M. Burgess
