Mr. J.P. Rockham,
Meriden Gravure Co.,
Meriden, Conn.

Dear Mr. Rockham:-

Your letter of March 25, came some days ago. I find that I failed to keep a list of the cards I sent in for re-print. I enclose two cards, one or both I feel sure were included with these.

Leave out the HAVANOS BY FIRELIGHT if this is one I sent you, if not the HAVANO INDIAN WOMAN.

While I have expected a cost increase, I don't know what it will mean in the post card business, for one cannot raise the price, and the retailer will have to share this. I hope to have another series later in the year.

Can you give me any idea of when I can expect this last order to come through?

Very truly yours,
