Dear Laura:

Congratulations on the appearance of your new book. You may be interested to know that it is being carried by the Chaucer Head Book Shop here at the Savoy Plaza Hotel and that they have sold several copies.

I am enclosing my check to your order for $5.00 for a copy of "Temples in Yucatan". Before you mail the book, will you please write what Mary would call a nice dedicace in the front; I probably suffer from an inferiority complex because I like to have our friends see that we know people who have enough brains to write books.

We are planning to go up to Lake Louise late in July so it does not look as if we would be able to get as far south as Sante Fe this year; however, if we do, you will hear from us and we will again go to LaFonda and have a meal out in the patio. Mary sends you her best love and I my deepest and respectful salutations.

Best of luck.

E. Irving Huntington

P.S. Please have the book sent to us at 115 East 90th Street, New York 28, N. Y.
