

MRS. IRVING HUNTINGTON
115 EAST 90TH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

Saturday, July 9th
1948

Laura dear :

Your new book is a "knock out" - Beautiful, and packed with interesting information which nobody but you could have gathered and presented so succinctly!! - Our chance that Book Shop in the Sherry Bethlands Hotel tells us that the Pueblos and the new one ^{are} going very well!

It doesn't seem possible that nearly a year has passed since we saw each other - always we think it was just yesterday ---- I suppose the kittens have reached maturity by now and that Sappho (wasn't that her name, or was it Psyche?) - is about to present you with another family!! - and the peaches on your tree, are they ripe? - How good they were! - oh Laura, -----

Next Sunday, the 18th we leave for Emerald Lake, stopping at a ranch near Jackson Wyo. for