Mitchell A. Wilder, Director

Dear Laura:

Many thanks for the label material which I intend to use complete. Even though the corn and Santa Fe labels are long I think they are important enough to be retained as you have written them. Consequently, everything is going forward although we will not type up the introductory labels until we see how the space limitations are working out. I hope you will send on the squib about the project, together with Dorothy Stewart's preface whenever they are ready and we can turn them over to the printer at once - also the photographs of yourself.

I am leaving today for New York and will see what I can do about placing the show with the Museum of Modern Art. However, I know their photographic boys are somewhat touchy and would not be interested in hearing about it from me. I think it best that it come through Walter Goodwin or some other agency. If you are going to be in New York I think it is best for you to work things out and play down the fact that the Fine Arts Center is presenting it this month.

As you already have my note I presume that you understand about the announcements of the show. I shall see to it that your list is sent out if you will submit the addresses, etc. to us.

Greetings from all and I will be back here on the 28th of the month.

Yours,

MAW:pbs
