Dear Miss Gilpin:

We received the announcement of your new book in this morning's mail, and we would like to notify you that we plan to announce it in our "New Books" column.

It will not be necessary to send us a copy of the book. However, we would appreciate a few other pertinent facts that we would need in order to have a complete description of your book.

What we will need is as follows: the size of format, the number of pages, whether it is cloth or paper bound, and we would also like to know if there is a publisher for this book, or if persons who would like to have it should write directly to you in care of your box number.

Best regards.

Sincerely,
