Dear Miss Giepin,

I have here the New York Herald Tribune
Book Review of September 26, and therein the announcement of your
book, "The Rio Grande, River of Destiny."

My reason for writing
is to find out if you are the Laura Giepin, whom I met in Liverpool, 1934, in the studio of Miss Siret

Sincerely Yours,
Helen Dow
(Mrs Walter Dow)
formerly Helen Armstrong.

and Miss Threfall. If you are, I should be delighted to hear from you and have any news of Miss Sinent that you might have.

At that time I was accompanist for the Dancing classes held in Miss Sinent's Studio.

If you are not the same person, just
disregard this letter, but in any case, I
wish you great success
in this coming book.
