Dear Mrs. Ellis:-

Your letter came several days ago and I have been so busy since my return that I am only just catching up. Thank you for the check for $6.64 for transportation charges. I will appreciate it if you will send the prints back to me at your convenience. I enclose an addressed label for the shipping case.

I was sorry indeed not to see you again before I left New York. I was in the club rooms several times but failed to find you. Did Hastings House send for the books? I requested them to. I am afraid that was a nuisance for you, but from what Mr. Eggers wrote me, I understood that you had a place there where things could be sold.

I was very pleased indeed to have the prints hung on your walls and I hope they proved of interest to your members. It was a great regret on my part that my time in New York was so greatly occupied with work on the new book and that I had so little time to put in appearance at the club.

With best wishes and thanks to you I am

Very sincerely yours,
