Dearest Madeleine,

Thank you so much for your letter and the orders for books which are all done up and ready to go and will be mailed shortly after December first. I have not yet included one for Sophie, however, as I know she already has one. Will you let me know if you want this to go anyway, or shall I cancel it or send it someplace else? I

I presume that you are now at Princeton and comfortably settled until you sail in January. I do hope the cruise will be good for Donald.

Everything is very busy out this way at the present. I am quite swamped with the work as well as all the things about the book.

Please send my love to Dorothy when you write her and this brings much to you and Donald.

Affectionately,
